Incoming Hogs are Generally Light and Thin.

The hog market yesterday was 5 cents lower along in sympathy with all the other markets. All early reported weaknesses and generally 5 cents lower and this marker, with no very great hogs to hold up the tone, angged off likewise under the influence of the other points. It was not a heavy day in point of receipts, though t was better than either Saturday or Monday of last week. There were eight cars received, six of them from the Ohlahoma country. Four of these came in late and were weighted up on the scales. None were very late, though the railway report was that some more might arrive on a belated train. These will cross the scales sariy this morning. All the looks offered were sold easily and the demand good at the lower prices. The quality of most of the offerings was inclined to be Dommon. There were lights it abundance, as has been the rule of late and four of the cars sold were below the 200 pound mark. There were also some roughs and coarse leaving and these grades did much to offset the few bet-Monday of last week. There were eight grades did much to offset the few bet-ter onts which were sprinkled in the loads. The average for the day, 25, was barely brought up by two very fair loads of heavy weight. This average for the day was below the other two comparing cays considerably. Better bugs would have been welcome and would have received good prices and such as did approximately. pear sold without hesitancy, and although there was an evident disappointment at the poor grades on sale. This market is out alone in this situation, however, as the report from Kansas City for Satur-day says this. "Receipts were light and slightly less than last Saturday. A large thars of the light supply was light weight stuff, and heavy hours were quite scarce." Some sections are remember above of cor-Some sections are running short of corn and underfed and half fat home are being burried into market with the shove noted depressing results. However, this market has all along held up well in comparison with others of the west and the best prices are being paid for the high such as ther are. Yesterday on the whole was a very fair Monday and the trade was active and the feeting seed.
